

The Fraser Guidelines

WHEN PROVIDING CONDOMS FOR CONTRACEPTIVE PURPOSES, it is essential that all workers working with young people follow the Fraser Guidelines as shown below:

- The young person will understand the professional's advice
- The young person cannot be persuaded to inform their parents
- The young person is likely to begin, or to continue having, sexual intercourse with or without contraceptive treatment
- Unless the young person receives contraceptive treatment, their physical or mental health, or both, are likely to suffer
- The young person's best interests require them to receive contraceptive advice or treatment with or without parental consent.
